

WEASEL NEWS

Dedicated to the promotion, co-ordination, and improvement of ski racing in B.C.

Weather you like it or not... Today's Forecast for February 4, 2008

Flurries Beginning In The Afternoon.
Alpine High Minus 10.
Snowfall Accumulation 2 Cm.

Creekside Load: 7:45 am to 8:15 am

Thanks to Tim Hortons for the treats!

Report from Rick Hume...Another great day and effort from all Weasels on Sunday, thanks very much! The entire Women's track is in place and it was injected with water from start to finish on Sunday.

Today's Job Jar...Now that the Women's track is in, building the safety systems will be the main focus today. Have fun and be safe!

Attention all volleys...Please check in each morning with Accreditation who will be upstairs at Dusty's from 7 – 8:30 am after which they will then be at the club cabin by 9 am!!!

Remember to wear your sunscreen!

Congratulations to
Emily Brydon of Fernie,
BC for winning a World Cup Gold in the Women's
Super G at St. Moritz,
Switzerland in a time of 1 minute 17.39
seconds!

The Beer Tent is open for business starting at 4 pm every afternoon! Don't forget to take a look at the Weasel Information Board for up to the minute breaking news that you need to know!

Visit Joyce Miller for a bowl of hot soup during your break time.
Located at the bottom of the Orange Chair.

Super Bowl Winner...The New York Giants!? It's True!