

WEASEL NEWS

Dedicated to the promotion, co-ordination, and improvement of ski racing in B.C.

Weather you like it or not... Today's Forecast for February 3, 2008

Cloudy. 40 Percent Chance Of Flurries.
Alpine High Minus 11.
Freezing Level at the Valley Bottom.

Creekside Load: 7:45 am to 8:15 am

Thanks to Tim Hortons for the treats!

Report from Patman...It was an incredible day Saturday! Thanks to all Weasels for their work on the hundreds of metres of B Systems and Skirting that went up. The Water Bar was used again on the Men's Slalom which is getting into great shape. Apologies go to Richard Hunter's crew: Sean, Elena, Brian, Petra, Doug and Boris for the "Build and Take Down" program Saturday.

Attention all volleys...Please check in each morning with Accreditation who will be upstairs at Dusty's from 7 – 8:30 am after which they will then be at the club cabin by 9 am!!!

Today's Job Jar...By the time you read this 4 people will already have loaded at 5 am to sort out crowd control to keep the First Tracks guests from getting on course. Extensive B Systems will need to be done today from Ace down and again from Frondala down. The Water Bar will be used today from Mid Franz's down.

Remember to wear your sunscreen!

Weasel Profile: Pat "Patman" O'Connell

Born in: Campbell River (Vancouver Island) lived there for 2 months...Its hard to keep a type A person in One spot for very long.

Weasel job: President/Coordinator Lady's track

Real job: Delta Fire Rescue Firefighter(Acting Captain)

How did you become a Weasel and when: 1992 Mikolash tricked me!
There's no such thing as free beer!

Advice to new Weasels: You will work hard, have lots of fun and meet new friends, and get a free Beer...lol

Best memory of Weasel work: Traveling to the 2002 Salt Lake Olympics with a group of 25 fellow Weasels, including Roy Bissett, standing in the start gate and straightlining the first 4 gates, blinded by the tears and rattling my molars loose having to throw my skies sideways to stop and clean my shorts...not lol

The Beer Tent is open for business starting at 4 pm every afternoon! Don't forget to take a look at the Weasel Information Board for up to the minute breaking news that you need to know!

Visit Joyce Miller for a bowl of hot soup during your break time.
Located at the bottom of the Orange Chair. Don't forget your crampons.

Will it be the Patriots or the Giants today?