

On Nov. 22, the Rotary Club of Squamish will recognize Owen Carney for his achievements in his business and volunteer endeavours.

The event is also a fundraiser for two of Owen's favourite charities: The Linda Carney Rotary Cares Fund, and the Squamish Rotary Foundation. There will be an exciting auction of "Owen Experiences" and other surprises throughout the night.

The evening will be devoted to tributes to Owen's many interests and activities and will illustrate that Owen really has, "Bin There and Done That."

The Rotary Club of Squamish invites you to a unique evening and gala dinner to:

Salute Owen Carney

Tickets $150 or tables of 8 for $1000

The Rotary Club of Squamish will do a salute to Owen Carney at a fundraiser event on November 22, 2008.

Murray Wood has reserved space for the Weasel Workers. Both Owen and Murray hope you can attend. The Whistler Weasel Workers have played a big part in Owen's life and it will be great to help recognize his achievements.

Owen is asking you to help him raise some money for two organizations that are important to him. The first is the Linda Carney Rotary Cares Foundation, and the second is the Squamish Rotary Foundation. The Linda Carney fund pays for uninsured medical expenses. Squamish Rotary funds community and international projects and is focusing on the Squamish Seniors Centre and Rotary International's polio eradication campaign.

The evening will have a great dinner and many silent and live auction items, just in time for Christmas. Owen hopes he won't be roasted too badly.

The cost is $150/person or a table of 8 for $1000.

The Location is: Quest University's Library Building

3200 University Blvd, Squamish

Cocktail Reception 5:30 – Dinner 6:30
